

Kick at Darkness

501(c)3 nonprofit: helping survivors of interpersonal violence

KickAtDarkness.com

NEED 5-8 crisis-support interns

Email: info@kickatdarkness.com or Call 602.753.7670

- NEXT SATURDAY: September 15, 2018
- Expected attendance: 50-75 people who identify as women

WHAT:

- CAST (Coming Alive, Scheming Together)
- CAST6.BrownPaperTickets.com
  - Tickets prices ($20) can be comped if needed for the interns
  - Ticket proceeds go to Kick at Darkness and help survivors of interpersonal violence get their trauma-informed healing

WHO: For any who identify as women & feel misfits, outcasts, or broken by the church

WHERE: Fuller Theological Seminary; 1110 E. Missouri Ave

TOPICS & SPEAKERS

Susan Cottrell of Freedhearts.org:

- LGBTQIA+ community and families who have been hurt by the church or religion
- Bringing healing to families to keep their faith and to accept their family members

BilliJoy Carson of KickAtDarkness.com:

- Survivors of sexual assault, sex trafficking, and child abuse in the church or any religious entity
- Showing them they are seen, they are not alone, there is hope, there is healing

Reverend Kimberly Scott: of Crossroads; performing an original spoken-word piece on being queer, married to a woman, a reverend, and a woman of color

Anasuya Isaacs: author, speaking on Womanism and the Divine Feminine